

6516204923.txt

XM is complying with the letter of the policy of the FCC, in that all coverage is indeed national. They are doing nothing wrong. The radio stations (and I'm sure Clear Channel) are merely trying to squash compition and not have to deal with upgrading, like most buisnesses.